

Conditions for Selection

In filling a vacant post at CUIB, priority consideration shall be given to qualifications, demonstrated competencies and performance of the candidates in relation to the stated criteria of the post. Only candidates meeting the pre-defined requirements for a post as per the job description and the vacancy announcement shall be considered. Other corporate priorities, such as gender, may also come into consideration in the selection process among qualified candidates.