

Procedures of Induction

Induction is done at three levels, i.e the Office of Human Resources, the Line manager and a colleague(s) in the unit. The induction process is expected to take a minimum of three days.

The reason for the three levels of induction is to prepare the new employee both mentally and psychologically to enable the employee understand the mission and vision of CUIB as well as work ethics and the job itself.