

Verification of Candidates Information and Reference Checking

No recruitment and selection process shall be complete without proper and thorough verification of critical information, including academic qualifications, languages and detailed reference checks. The CUIB personnel history form is required for all recruitments and selections and relevant candidate information on these matters require verification and, in particular, the candidate's employment history for purpose of reference-checking.