

Work Plan Based on Results –Based Management

Each department, unit or individual develops a work plan at the beginning of the academic year for the faculty, and at the start of the calendar year for the management staff. The purpose of the work plan is to help units set goals and performance indicators to achieve the mission of the University. This work plans will be defended before and after execution like a budget.